

ARSH CONVERTIBLE STRETCHER

Arsh

CONVERTIBLE STRETCHER

Versatile Design for Complex Environments: The Arsh Stretcher is distinguished by its ability to transform from a conventional stretcher into a chair, a feature that offers unmatched flexibility in navigating through tight spaces such as narrow corridors, short elevators, and stairs. This transformative capability ensures that patients can be transported smoothly and comfortably in any setting, overcoming logistical challenges that traditional stretchers cannot.

Unlimited Positioning for Enhanced Comfort: Equipped with cutting-edge gas spring mechanisms, the Arsh Stretcher allows for effortless adjustment of the backrest, providing unlimited positioning options. Whether transitioning from a flat laying position to a seated posture, caregivers can easily adjust the stretcher to meet the specific comfort and support needs of patients, enhancing the overall transportation experience.

Arsh Convertible Stretcher

Key features

- Convertible stretcher-to-chair design, enabling rapid transition between supine and seated positions without changing equipment
 - Fully compliant with EN 1789 and EN 1865-1, meeting all applicable safety and performance requirements
 - Physically crash-tested to 10G in five directions, ensuring certified occupant and equipment safety during ambulance operations
 - High-strength aluminum frame construction combined with durable polymers and composites for optimal strength-to-weight ratio
 - Ergonomic backrest and seat geometry providing patient
- comfort in both stretcher and chair configurations
 - Secure locking mechanisms guaranteeing stability and safety in all operating positions
 - Optimized for ambulance interiors, supporting efficient loading, unloading, and in-vehicle positioning
 - Compatible with standard patient restraint systems for safe immobilization in both modes
 - Low-maintenance mechanical design, suitable for intensive EMS use
 - Designed for EMS, emergency transport, and inter-facility transfer applications

Product Model	Product Code	Technical Specifications
		Length (cm)	Width (cm)	Height (cm)	Weight (kg)	Height in chair pos (cm)	Lenght in chair pos (cm)	Loading Height (cm)	Loading Capacity (kg)
Arsh	R-S-CS-ARSH-01	196	55.7	89	40.5	143	126	68	220

Accessories

